MISS WITHEROW WEDS SATURDAY

Elias Evangelical Lutheran church, Emmitsburg, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, at 2 p. m. when Miss Selma Maye Witherow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart C. Witherow, Emmitsburg, became the bride of Frederick O. Roelecke, Jr., Taneytown, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Roelecke, Sr., Baltimore.

Before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms and lighted tapers, the double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of the couple.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ruth Shuff, church organist, presented a 15-minute organ recital, and accompanied the soloist, Henry Rein-dollar, Taneytown, who sang "Because." "The Lord's Prayer" was also sung by Mr. Rein-dollar while the couple knelt at the altar. For the processional and the recessional the traditional wedding marches were used.

Attended By Sister

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin brocade fashioned with a tight-fitting bodice and illusion neckline with tiny self-covered buttons below the waist. Leg-o-mutton sleeves ended in points over the hands. The full skirt ended in a long train. Her finger tip veil of illusion net fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid with white satin streamers and tied with white satin ribbon. Her only jewelry was a three-strand pearl necklace that was worn by her mother at her wedding.

Miss Gertrude Witherow, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a rose taffeta gown fashioned with tight-fitting bodice with a full skirt with bustle effect back, matching mitts and headress. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white pompons tied with yellow satin ribbon. She wore a single strand of pearls with matching ear rings, a gift of the bride.

Chester Witherow, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Ross Linebaugh, Harrisburg, a cousin of the bride, and Douglas Strong, Baltimore, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

GIRL SCOUTING IS DESCRIBED FOR ROTARIANS

Girl Scouting in Adams county was described Monday evening by Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, president of the county Girl Scout council, at the regular meeting of Rotary held at the YWCA. The program was held as part of the Girl Scout Week activities in the community.

Since the organization of a county Girl Scout council two years ago, membership in the county has increased from approximately 200 Girl Scouts to approximately 600. The number of troops has increased from 19 to more than 40, Mrs. Coleman said.

Goals of the scout organization are to secure 1,000 memberships in the character building organization and to establish a permanent camp in the county for the Girl Scouts. A number of councils within 50 miles have camps, the speaker pointed out "but they operate on the principle and a correct one, that the scout from their districts should have the first opportunity to go to camp. As a result very few Adams county Girl Scouts had an opportunity last summer to attend a full-time camp. It is our hope that eventually we may be able to establish our own camp here in Adams county."

25 Killed When Planes Crash In Air At Noon Over National Airport

Washington, Nov. 1 (AP)—At least 25 persons were killed today in the collision of an Eastern air lines passenger plane and a Bolivian military plane.

P. M. Clifford of Washington, who witnessed the collision, estimated the planes were about 300 feet in the air.

He said the smaller plane plunged into the Potomac and disappeared.

"I was driving south when I suddenly looked up," Clifford said. "I saw a ball of fire and a trail of smoke about 300 feet above the ground and one plane falling."

"I parked my car and ran to the river bank. I saw them bring a woman out of the wreckage and several men. They were terribly battered. I could not stand to look any more."

The under belly of the airplane was ripped open.

Volunteers working with police and firemen had the first bodies removed from the plane before the confusion subsided at the scene. Hundreds of automobiles were backed up on the highway which was blocked by police for the ambulances.

Boatmen were going back and forth over the river looking for bodies.

The Civil Aeronautics administration identified the pilot of the military plane as Rios Bridoux, director of civil aviation in Bolivia.

The CAA gave this account of the actual crash:

The Bolivian was on a test flight

Here And There News Collected At Random

A recent visitor to Gettysburg asked a local merchant where he could secure a guide to tour the battlefield. The visitor was directed to the square, less than a half-block away, where, he was told, any one of six or seven guides was available.

"I've been there," the visitor replied, "but those guides are all too fat. I want a skinny guide. We don't have room for a fat one in our car."

PETITIONS COURT

Dora Matilda Delap Bankert, Aspers R. 1, has filed papers with the county prothonotary asking permission to operate as a "feme sole trader." Her petition notes that she needs such court approval in order to sell a farm in Tyrone township, which she claims is owned by her, because her husband, from whom she is separated, refused to sign the papers permitting the sale.

The tower ordered Bridoux to circle the field so as to come in behind the commercial ship.

He did not acknowledge the call, which the control tower repeated several times.

Tower observers saw him coming straight in and called to him to pull up. There was no indication that he heard or understood the order.

Bolivian embassy officials said he was their country's best pilot who had been trained in various U.S. schools and at Randolph field. He was 28.

Officials said he had originally planned to leave with the plane two or three days ago but had delayed his departure in order to make further tests of the plane.

Eastern Airlines identified the flight as number 537. It left Boston at 9 a. m. and had stopped at New York. It cleared LaGuardia airport at about 10:30 and was due to land at Washington at 11:46.

The collision occurred about half a mile south of the airport over Mount Vernon boulevard which runs from the nation's capitol through Alexandria, Va., to Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington.

Skies were overcast but visibility was unlimited and the ceiling was several thousand feet.

Plans No Inquest In Baldwin Death

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, stated that he will not hold an inquest into the death of Maurice Baldwin, 40, of Bendersville who was fatally injured on Friday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock near Fairfield. He was unconscious from the time he was struck by the limb until he died, which was before the arrival of the ambulance from the Warner hospital.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Dugan funeral home, Bendersville, with further services at the Wensville Methodist church.

The pallbearers were Melvin Heller, Guy McCauslin, Orville Black, Glen Taylor, Rodney Taylor and John McKinney.

Interment was in the Wensville cemetery.

GIRL SCOUTERS GUESTS OF LIONS MONDAY EVENING

The Gettysburg Lions club observed Girl Scout Week at its weekly dinner meeting Monday evening at the Shetter House with a special program at which five local Girl Scout leaders were guests.

Miss Marian Tupper, Girl Scout director for the Adams county council, reviewed briefly the history of Girl Scouting and described the organization's structure and program.

Emphasizing the need for additional adult leadership she said there are two waiting lists of county girls who cannot become scouts until more volunteer leaders are found.

"We are eager in this county to establish a Girl Scout camp. So far we have had to confine our activities in that direction to day camps. We hope sometime to have a site where an established camping program can be carried on," Miss Tupper added.

Miss Tupper said the formation of the Girl Scouts followed the organization in England in 1908 of Boy Scouts in England. The Girl Guides were organized in that country in 1910 and Juliette Low adapted Girl Scout plans for use in this country with the first troop being formed in Savannah, Ga., in 1912. In 1913 a national headquarters was established in Washington and a world association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides was formed in 1928 that now embraces 28 countries.

The program concluded with the showing of a Girl Scout camp film.

Miss Tupper was introduced by Prof. William Duck, Lions program chairman, and she presented these Girl Scout leaders who were club guests for the evening: Mrs. Paul Ramer of the Catholic Brownie troop; Mrs. Kenneth Rhinehart of Intermediate Troop No. 8; Miss Betty Brandon of Intermediate Troop No. 11, and Mrs. Robert Fryling of Intermediate Troop No. 10.

President Donald M. Swope presided at the meeting. Attorney Eugene R. Hartman was introduced as a new member of the club. One hundred and two Lions and guests attended.

Admits Guilt On Charges; Posts Bail

Ralph Myers, approximately 50, York Springs R. D., found this morning that taking an interest in another man's wife may be painful and expensive.

Myers appeared before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore to plead guilty to a morals charge of violation of the firearms act for carrying a revolver in a truck. That charge was laid by State Police.

Myers had some difficulty in signing the papers, due to bandages over one eye and various bruises and cuts about the face suffered during Mr. Weaver's original objection to Myers' actions.

The York Springs man posted $500 bail on each charge to appear for sentence before the Adams county court.

Remove Hazards At Intersection

Combined operations between the state Department of Highways and the local National Park office are intended to bring about safer driving conditions at the intersection of Buford avenue and the Gettysburg-Mummasburg road.

Highway workmen have already leveled a "hump" in the Mummasburg road which prevented avenue drivers from seeing oncoming traffic. A new macadam surface will be placed on the leveled-off section.

In the meantime, the National Park office here is planning to move the stone marker erected by the 17th Pennsylvania Cavalry about 20 feet south and east of the present location. A concrete base for the monument has already been laid at the new site and as soon as the concrete dries, the large stone marker, which is near the intersection, will be moved.

Woman Injured In Automobile Collision

Mrs. Marjorie Colter, 50, Miami, Fla., suffered bruises about the chest when an automobile driven by her husband, Leo Arthur Colter, collided Monday afternoon at 2:05 o'clock with a car driven by Joseph G. Kanterman, 48, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., at the Heidlersburg intersection.

State police, who investigated, said Kanterman was driving west on the East Berlin-Biglerville road and Colter was headed south on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg road. Mrs. Colter was treated by a Gettysburg physician. Damage to the cars totalled $200.

LIBRARY WILL OPEN IN OWN HOME SATURDAY

The Adams County Free library will open its new quarters on East High street on Saturday.

The library has been closed since September 24 for moving from its previous location on Carlisle street and for the completion of remodeling work at the former county jail building which the library bought earlier this year for its permanent home.

The library's board of directors will gather Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the library's new home for the regular November meeting. One matter on the agenda will be the completion of plans for the annual meeting of the library membership on November 22.

Plan "Open House" Later

An official "open house" when the public will be invited to inspect the new library building will be planned. Bookmobile service throughout the county has not been interrupted by the change of library location.

Seeking Building Fund

Beginning Saturday, the library will be open regular hours to the public, Miss Anna Farran, librarian, announced today. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, the library will be open from 12 noon to 5 p. m. and on Wednesdays and Saturdays from noon to 8 p. m. The library is closed each Monday.

Miss Farran said that all books out on loan will be returnable without fines during the first week the library is re-opened—unless the books were overdue when the library closed on September 24.

A finance committee of the library is conducting a county-wide drive for funds with which to pay off the cost of the library property, which was $9,000, and the cost of remodeling the former jail for use as a library. Improvements already undertaken will cost about $7,500. O. H. Benson is chairman of the committee that is conducting the building fund campaign.

3RD DISTRICT RALLY NOV. 13

The annual fall rally of the Third district Adams County Sunday School association will be held Sunday, November 13, at 7:30 o'clock in Redeemer's Reformed church. This rally will take the place of the union vesper service for that night.

A program committee, appointed some time ago by Glenn Reaver, president of the third district, consisting of Stanley M. Staub, chairman, Samuel H. Higinbotham and Edward P. Hawk, has announced the following program: song service to be led by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church; scripture and prayer, the Rev. Kenneth D. James, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church; special music by a quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Yealy, Miss Jean Yealy and Robert De-Groft.

The Rev. J. Alfred Fryer, pastor of Memorial Evangelical and Reformed church, York, will be the guest speaker. He has chosen as his theme, "Minimum or Maximum."

Following the address there will be a hymn by the congregation after which the offering will be received by the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of the host church. Special music will follow by Stewart N. Long after which the president, Glenn Reaver, will then present the attendance banner to the school receiving it. After a congregation hymn, the benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. Harvey B. Simons, pastor of Centenary Methodist church.

President Reaver will be the presiding officer. Other officers of the district include: Fred W. King, vice president; Miss Helen Myers, secretary; and Roscoe W. Rittsae, treasurer.

BETHLEHEM STEEL ENDS LONG STRIKE

Washington, Nov. 1 (AP)—A welfare plan agreement that sends 80,000 striking CIO steel workers back to their jobs with Bethlehem Steel corporation today buoyed government hopes for a quick end to both the steel and coal strikes.

Officials said they expect other steel firms will follow in the footsteps of Bethlehem, the nation's second largest steel producer, which signed an agreement last night to end the strike so far as this company was concerned.

The government officials said that now that a break has come in the steel strike, definite peace moves may be expected in coal because of the close relations of the two basic industries.

Bethlehem signed up in Cleveland last night with Philip Murray, president of the CIO and the striking steelworkers.

"We broke the line," Murray exclaimed. "From here on we move with a firmness of purpose and a determination that victory will attend our efforts."

The precedent-making contract gives Bethlehem workers employer-paid pensions starting at $100 a month, including the benefits they get from the government's Social Security system.

It also calls for a death, sickness, accident and hospital cost insurance plan worth five cents an hour per worker, with employer and worker equally sharing costs. Bethlehem has maintained a company-financed $50-a-month pension plan for some years, as well as a wholly worker-financed insurance system costing employees about 1 1/2 cents an hour.

The settlement came on the steel strike's 31st day and the coal walk-out's 43rd.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall adjoining the church for approximately 100 guests. The hall was decorated with a yellow and white color scheme. A large, three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom formed the centerpiece for the bride's table.

Joseph Maffra, Emmitsburg, rendered several appropriate selections on the accordion.

The couple left on a brief wedding trip to an unannounced destination. For traveling, the bride wore a steel blue crepe dress and leopard coat with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in the home near Taneytown, Md., where the groom is engaged in farming.

October Warmth Was Near Record

Only a few Octobers in Gettysburg weather annals were warmer than the month that ended yesterday with daily temperatures that averaged more than six degrees above normal. October records for 1910, 1914, 1919, 1920, 1941 and 1947 show averages higher than last month's 59.8 degrees.

The warmest day last month was October 10, when the temperature climbed to 86 degrees and the first killing frost came on October 27 with a temperature of 33 degrees. The only sub-freezing temperature of the month was a 30-degree reading on October 28.

We get a chance to learn a lot. Gettysburg plays hard, clean football and I sincerely hope we continue to play them for as long as I am here."

Six lettermen from last year will be available, five reporting for the first workout. Those reporting were Bob O'Brien, Harry Pure, Walt Plechner, Bucky Harris and Hank Belber.

The sixth veteran of last season is Ross Sachs, who will be unable to report until the conclusion of the football season on Thanksgiving Day.

Only two lettermen were lost from the 1948-49 squad, Bud Boehner and Bobby March.

Other varsity squad members remaining from last season include Robert White, George Gorman, Dave Rosborough and Allen Holman. Bob McCausland, another squad member, will also be delayed in joining the squad until after the grid season is completed.

Up from freshman squad are Bruce Mahon, George Hare, Johnny Clark, Tom Ketterman, Warren Watson, Kenny Fair and Milan Resanovich. Gene Coder and Ken Bowman will report after the football season.

Drills will be held each evening from 7:30 until 9 o'clock in preparation for the 24-game schedule, which includes such opponents as Cornell, Virginia, Pitt, Penn State, Navy, LaSalle, Muhlenberg and Lafayette. Seven games will be played before the Christmas holidays.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—Little Andy Kerr, who still swears by his own creation, the double-wingback formation, made a rather startling statement the other day: "Coaches like Lou Little, Buff Donelli and Paul Brown are miles ahead of the rest of us." Kerr, watching the single-wing teams of Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania battle it out, was discussing the success of these old-fashioned formations and how the up-to-date "T" experts are ringing in such variations as the wing-T which stem from the old stuff. "One reason these formations do so well is that the boys don't know what to do when they're double-teamed; they're used to playing defense against the T... but it stands to reason that when you have two offensive formations, it makes coaching twice as hard for the opposition. They have to teach two defenses to use against you." Maybe Kerr would be smart to let the subject drop there; some rival may come up with a "three platoon" team to cover all the angles.

A southern coach, who wisely elects to remain anonymous, gives this report: "I haven't seen a really high class team down here this year—and that includes Kentucky." ## Says Louis May Be Planning Comeback

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 1 (AP)—Harry Mendell of New York, exhibition tour agent for Joe Louis, thinks the retired heavyweight champion plans a comeback "or he's getting his dough the hard way."

Louis has denied he plans a return to active fighting.

Mendell said today Louis cancelled "two or three four-round exhibitions," in order to work in the up-town gym at New York.

"When he boxed fours, he never went in the gym," Mendell said. "Now we've got five ten-rounders to do before Christmas. Why do tens when fours will draw the same money?"

Mendell answered himself: "Tens are supposed to draw better crowds. It's a lot more work and Louis either has plans of his own or he's getting his dough the hard way. We let the promoter pick the opponent. For instance, Louis never saw Billy Gilliam before last night when he boxed four rounds against him."

IRISH CHOICE OF WRITERS AS BEST IN LAND

By JACK HAND

New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—Notre Dame continues to roll up the score in the Associated Press football poll with 83 per cent of the first place votes in the fifth weekly rankings.

New faces come and go in the top 10 but nobody is close to the Fighting Irish who were ranked first by 133 of the 161 sports writers and sportscasters participating.

It's getting monotonous. Notre Dame is the No. 1 spot and the other members of the "Big Four" rushing along behind them. The rest are stragglers in the voting.

Army is second, Oklahoma third and California fourth, just like last week. The "Big Four" cornered all but three of the first place ballots. Oklahoma drew 11, Army 10 and California three. The others went to 10th-place Michigan State (2) and to seventh-place Cornell (1).

Minnesota and Pennsylvania nose-dived out of the top 10 after their respective defeats by Purdue and Pittsburgh. Southern Methodist and Michigan State took their places.

None of the "Big Four" was hard pressed last Saturday. Notre Dame thumped Navy, 40-0; Army ran over Virginia Military, 40-14; Oklahoma walloped Iowa State, 34-7; and California turned back UCLA's challenge, 35-21.

On a point basis, with 10 for first, 9 for second and so on, the Irish piled up 1,569 to outdistance the pack. The Cadet's second place margin was sliced but they still hold the edge over Oklahoma, 1,323 to 1,308. California has 1,070 points.

Michigan, the only other team except Notre Dame to lead the poll this season, gained support by toppling Illinois, 13-0. As a result the Wolverines advanced a peg from sixth to fifth.

Baylor's unbeaten Bears jumped from tenth to sixth on the strength of a 40-14 ramble against Texas Christian. Cornell moved up to seventh on its 54-0 rout of Columbia but Rice, surprisingly, fell from No. 5 to No. 8 despite a 28-0 win over Texas Tech.

Southern Methodist, a 7-6 winner over Texas on Doak Walker's placement, took over ninth position and Michigan State, which faces Notre Dame's powerhouse this Saturday, ruined Temple, 62-14, graduating to 10th place.

Minnesota's 13-7 loss to Purdue dumped the Gophers among the also-rans and Penn's 22-21 upset by Pitt dropped the previously unbeaten Quakers into a 20th place tie with perfect record Fordham.

Grid Team Gives Blood For Girl, 4

New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—A mass blood donation—arranged by an amateur football team of war veterans—was given yesterday for a four-year-old girl.

The girl, Randy Fareman, of Brooklyn, has leukemia and needs repeated transfusions.

The Bay Ridge Rockets team heard about her condition, and arranged with a blood center for a donation of 40 pints of blood by members of the team and their friends.

HOCKEY TEAM WINS

The Gettysburg college women's field hockey team defeated Shippensburg State Teachers' college on the latter's field 4-3. Sue Hunsberger, who scored a pair of goals for the winners, broke a tie with a goal in the last five minutes of play.

Of course, amalgamation and the consequent reduction of costs would help that situation, but what about the all American conference's avowed intention of keeping the players in the high pay brackets? The Oklahoma A.A.U. has nominated amateur golf champion Charley Coe for the Sullivan Memorial award, and you'd have a hard time finding a better candidate. . . . Most-traveled team of the 1949 football season must be the 37-man drill team from the Pensacola, Fla., naval pre-flight school. It has appeared at the Ohio State, Missouri, Georgia Tech-Tulane, Michigan State-William and Mary and Penn State-Syracuse games.

Eight GHS Seniors In Final Friday Against Mechanicsburg

BISONS TO BE REAL TEST FOR BULLET ELEVEN

There'll be a clash of Orange and Blue this coming Saturday when the undefeated Mechanicsburg high team is met here in the final game of the season for the Warriors.

Bucknell has downed such formidable foes as N. Y. U., Delaware, Washington & Jefferson, and Buffalo. They ran up their biggest score against W. J. The Bulls have met equally formidable foes. Their most impressive victory was over Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore, whom they drubbed 56-6.

Both teams are laden with talented backfields. The Bisons have a fleet-footed runner in Joe Ostendarp and a passing wizard in Tom Dean. Gettysburg can retaliate with its leading offensive threat, Dwight Speaker, who tallied three times against Hopkins, and Ross Sachs, whose quick thinking and passing arm label him as one of the best in small college football.

The coming contest will mark the 33rd meeting of the two Orange and Blues. In games played to date Bucknell has walked away victorious 21 times while Gettysburg has eked out only nine triumphs. Two battles have resulted in ties.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1 (AP)—Freddy Dawson of Chicago who has failed to link Lightweight Champion Ike Williams in three non-title efforts gets another opportunity November 28 and this time the crown will be on the line. Promoter Phil Glassman announced yesterday that Trenton Ike—undisputed boss of the 135 pounders since August 4, 1947—had signed to defend his title for the fifth time.

Philadelphia, Nov. 1 (AP)—Two veteran campaigners—Tony Canadeo of Green Bay and Sammy Baugh of the Washington Redskins—are tops at their specialties, National Football league statistics revealed today. Canadeo, who came into the NFL from Gonzaga university eight years ago, seems to improve with age. The hard-working Packer runner leads the league in ground gaining with 549 yards on 100 attempts for an average gain of 5.5 per carry.

The old master with the pass, Baugh, returned to the top of the aerial list after one week of playing second fiddle. He ousted the Chicago Bears' Johnny Lujack by half a point under the NFL's inverse system of ratings.

St. Louis, Nov. 1 (AP)—Vice President Alben W. Barkley, who has scored many successes in a long political career, has also proved himself lucky in love.

Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, the comely young widow whom he courted diligently for nearly four months, announced Sun. night that the two would be married here November 18.

The announcement was made informally in the presence of a few friends and newspapermen in Mrs. Hadley's apartment as the Vice President stood by smiling.

Wedding details were not made public. Friends expected the ceremony would be a simple one and would be performed in one of the local Methodist churches. Both the 71-year-old Kentuckian and his 38-year-old bride-to-be are members of that faith.

The former senator then turned to those present and said chivalrously: "The Vice President yields—shall we say—to the senator from Missouri." Mrs. Hadley, with eyes sparkling, said simply: "The Vice President and I are going to be married on the 18th of November. The plans will be announced later."

Grebes are usually called "dabchicks," "dildappers," "hell divers" and "water witches." They are diving birds related to the loon family.

WEDDING CAUSES STRIKE

Romford, England, Nov. 1 (AP)—A wedding led to a strike here. Jack Murton, a meat loader, got married and went off on a three-day honeymoon. His three fellow loaders at the wholesale meat supply depot asked for a substitute. Refused, they struck. The area's meat ration is standing unloaded.

Special Exercises at the High School: At the first monthly meeting of the High School Literary society on Friday afternoon, the exercises by the students were very interesting. Those who took part were Daisy Thorne, Etta Benner, Grace Troxell, Mary McAllister, Lulu Little, Belle Scott, Nina Storrick, Allen Dickson, Mary Sheads, Martha Dickson, Robert Hunter, James Diller, Hattie Irwin, Amanda Tawney and Mary Hoffman.

Miss Lillie McClean, president of the YWCA, presented a fine portrait of the late Francis E. Willard, president of the World's WCTU, to the school. Prof. J. D. Hunter accepted the picture on behalf of the school. The picture will be hung in the auditorium of the Meade school building.

Mrs. Annie M. Miller, 13 and 15 East Middle street, Gettysburg, for the next 30 days will sell all the finished marble and granite monuments and tombstones on hand, at cost. Call early and secure bargains.

Marriages. Slothour-Hoar. — October 26, by Rev. R. H. Clare, Martin L. Slothour, of Abbotstown, to Miss Kate M. Hoar, of Berwick township. Thomas-Myers—October 26, at the bride's home in Menallen township, by Rev. U. A. Hankey, Jacob R. Thomas to Miss Crozella E. Myers, both of Menallen township. Monay-Carl—October 29, at the home of the bride in York, by Rev. J. W. Yohe, Oliver Monay, of York, and Miss Lillie Carl, formerly of this place.

St. James Mite society will hold a chicken and biscuit supper in the McPherson Columbian building Friday evening, November 3. Supper, 25 cents. Ice cream and cakes. Everybody invited.

Local Miscellany: Halloween, from the standpoint of the small boy, was a failure this year owing to the bad weather. Some of them, however, braved the tempest, and tried to get into trouble. Two succeeded and were arrested by the police. Their fathers paid the costs. A number of parties were held and the young people report having good times.

The Gettysburg Water company on Monday declared a dividend of 50 cents a share payable on or after the 8th of November.

H. C. Lackner, the baker, has purchased a fine new delivery wagon. J. L. Butt, Esq., has purchased the Hankey farm, containing 254 acres, along the Mummastown road, for $4,500.

Democratic Speakers: On a Saturday night there are usually plenty of people to be attracted by a brass band and a political meeting. Evidently some of them did not hear the band, for there were plenty of vacant seats in the courtroom on Saturday evening.

The speakers arrived on the evening train over the P. & R., and took supper at the Eagle hotel. Headed by the Gettysburg band, they then marched to the courthouse. Mr. Creasy marched arm in arm with County Chairman Devine and Edward A. Weaver, Esq., and the other speakers followed.

County Chairman Devine opened the meeting. Hon. George J. Benner made an address, nominating H. L. Bream, of Cashtown, president of the meeting, and also a number of vice presidents and secretaries.

Mr. Benner then introduced Mr. Creasy, candidate for state treasurer. Mr. Walter Ritter was the next speaker. Charles I. Duncan also spoke.

Hon. John Fow followed this with a humorous address.

Personal Items: Emanuel P. Wisotzky was in Harrisburg on Tuesday attending a meeting of the Retail Grocers' association.

Miss Alice Crapster, of Taneytown, Md., is visiting Miss Ella Gililand.

Rev. Roland E. Crist, of Welsh Run, is in town.

READING

Imagine for one moment the staggering amount of words that flow through the human mind in sixty seconds throughout the world. Each day newspapers, magazines and books step into the world freshly born, and most of them to die with the day, but there are imprints left in the mind that few of us ever appraise.

The world's greatest remedy for idleness, ennui, self-conceit, and loneliness is—reading. It consoles, as well, and often lifts the spirit into a new haven and new earth. One of my friends, with whom to talk is a rare delight, so impressed me with his wide knowledge that I asked him what college he had attended. "I never went to college," he replied. Reading had done for him what a dozen colleges might have failed to do.

The joy behind all reading is that we can make our own selection. And in our own good time—and when most in the mood. If we have wisely gathered about us a group of books, they become "as friends, to whom we can go when most in need of them. And we can dismiss them at will, as well. We can't always do that with a flesh-and-blood friend!" Logan Pearsall Smith writes of "the nice and subtle happiness of reading—this joy not dulled by age, this polite and unpolished vice, this unselfish, serene, life-long intoxication." It is all that this gifted writer has said—and far more. Not only do we read to learn but to gain the joy and stimulation that it affords.

These silent friends of ours—our books—remain with us forever. They never desert us, nor do they bore us with their content. We can select our book friends and our reading matter. You see, we get the best of a human being in what he writes, and if it satisfies us, we cling to it and cherish it. That's why great books and great writing never die.

Good reading is food to the mind and nourishment to the soul. You can conquer time and place with reading. Sir Edward Cook once wrote that "it is only in prison that the acid test of what is readable is to be found." I would not suggest, however, that this test be often used.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Melody of Memories."

AT TEN

He wants a letter for his sweater
And a pair of cleated shoes;
Thinks a headgear so much better
Than a cap he'll quickly lose;
Dreams of days the press will print a
Picture of him, now and then,
As a guard or backfield sprinter.
So did I, when I was ten.

Now he grins at sprains and bruises,
Proudly says: "I made a down!"
If a game his school team loses,
It's a loss of high renown.
More important than his classes,
(This is gospel truth I pen)
Is to practice forward passes.
I thought that, when I was ten.

Vain it is today to tell him
Football glory swiftly dies.
Try to study more compel him?
He has goal posts in his eyes.
When the game's great heroes leave it
They must start careers as men.
Say that now? He won't believe it;
Nor would I, when I was ten.

Last Survivor Of Accursed Town In Georgia Dies At 105

By BEN PRICE

Oliver, Ga., Nov. 1 (AP)—The lone survivor of Jacksonboro—the accursed town that was—is dead.

Out of that once damned, now desolate region on Beaver creek came word Monday that Richard Bryant, 105-year-old ex-negro slave, had died Friday night.

He was the only man alive who saw the terrible curse of a little hunchbacked itinerant minister, Lorenzo Dow, come true.

He saw the once bustling town disappear, house by house, store by store, until but one house remained—the house specifically spared by Dow.

Flourished at First

When Bryant was just three years old he saw the white residents give up in despair at the freaks of fire, water and wind and move lock, stock and barrel five miles away to found another town, Sylvania.

It was in 1794 that Jacksonboro, half way between Augusta and Savannah, was founded. It flourished as a coach stop and county seat. Jacksonboro was a rough, tough town near the hill country in a rough, tough time.

For 36 years the town went its boisterous way. Then, in 1830, Dow drifted down and called upon its citizens to repent. People laughed. They pelted him with eggs. And they would not let him preach.

The Townfolk Laughed

The tormented little minister with the burning eyes turned this way and that until a powerful man, Seaborn Goodall, gave him sanctuary in his home.

When the purposeful Dow strode to meet his tormentors along the following day, a mob drove him to Rustic Bridge and bade him never return. Scornfully, Dow paused on the span, removed his shoes and shook the dust of Jacksonboro from his feet.

He turned and swore that God would bring swift vengeance, the same that overtook Sodom and Gomorrah. The townfolk laughed again.

Unaccountable Disasters

But then, unaccountably, fire broke out, windstorms tore off roofs, the placid creek through the middle of the town became wild and unruly, sweeping away homes in flash floods.

The remaining settlers finally gave up and moved their county seat to Sylvania. Time removed all traces of the town but the Goodall place, which still stands.

Here Bryant was born into slavery. He was a young man when Sherman marched through, burning all houses along his route—but the Goodall home.

The night old "Uncle" Richard died, so they say, by the light of a flickering kerosene lamp, there was an awful rustling in the trees. And an old hound howled.

Schuylkill Work Ahead Of Schedule

NPhoenixville, Pa., Nov. 1 (AP)—Work on the $55,000,000 Schuylkill river cleanup, biggest project of its kind ever undertaken anywhere, is running ahead of schedule and will easily be completed by mid-1951, Governor James H. Duff says.

The Governor, with a party of state officials, U.S. Army engineers and newsmen, toured the watershed on Friday and expressed "utmost satisfaction" with progress since dredging was started in September, 1948.

First stages of purification of Pennsylvania's number one "problem river" began late in 1947 when heavy machinery was rolled into place to clear out old dams. Since then millions of tons of silt, the accumulation of generations, has been sluiced into huge impounding basins at strategic spots along the river from Auburn and Tamagua to Norristown.

Speaking at a luncheon in Reading Friday the Governor described the project as "one of the most fabulous operations ever undertaken in any country, and one of the most remarkable jobs ever done as a government operation."

Modern oil wells commonly reach depths of 10,000 feet.

LITTLESTOWN

MISS PLUNKERT
NAMED QUEEN OF HALLOWEEN

Miss Bernice Plunkert, Littlestown R. 2, previously chosen queen by the members of the senior class of Littlestown high school, was crowned Halloween Queen by Everett Feaser, president of the student body, at a Halloween party held in the high school auditorium Monday night. She was attired in a light green evening gown and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and pom-poms. Her attendants were Miss Carolyn Orndorff, Littlestown R. 2, chosen by the members of the junior class, and Miss Mary Lou Boyd, East King street, chosen by the members of the sophomore class.

Prizes For Costumes

The party, which was attended by approximately 250 of the students and faculty of the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school, opened with a grand march. Robert Snyder, a member of the senior class, served as master of ceremonies. Prizes were awarded for the following costumes: most original: first prize, a scarecrow, Glenn Dutterer; second prize, Toni Twins, Charles and Harry Badders; most comical: first prize, a baby, Victor Reynolds; second prize, "Miss Littlestown," a boy in a bathing suit, Carl Feaser; prettiest: first prize, "Daisy Mae," Eleanor Harner; second prize, "The Gibson Girl," Shirley Renner. First prize was a large Hershey bar while the second prize was a small Hershey bar. Judges were Mrs. Charles E. Tressler, Mrs. Garnet E. Schellhase and Miss LeOra Held.

The auditorium was decorated with black and orange streamers on the ceiling and corn shocks around the walls. In the center were a skeleton and a cauldron. Refreshments were served consisting of cider, ginger bread, candy, pretzels and apples. The program included games, dancing to recorded music and square dancing.

The committee from the faculty in charge of this event consisted of Clayton L. Evans, Miss Ruth Liles and Garnet E. Schellhase. Mr. Evans was in charge of the decorations, assisted by the boys of the ninth grade. Miss Liles was in charge of the games and dancing and was assisted by the following student committee:

Hazel Rimel, Shirley Stonelifer, Diane Stambaugh, Beverly DeHoff, Shirley Warner, Laura Stock, Shirley Miller, Clyde Harner, Barbara Harner, Joan Wenschhof, Sue Stair and Francis Gerrick. Mr. Schellhase was in charge of refreshments and was assisted by Shirley Warner.

No Lions Meeting

"This Prodigal America" was the topic for discussion on Sunday evening in the Christian Endeavor society of St. Paul's Lutheran church with Miss Suzanne Long as leader. Miss Patricia Long read the eighth chapter of Deuteronomy as the scripture lesson and prayer was offered by the Rev. David S. Kammerer. The Christian Endeavor pledge was repeated in unison. Miss Jane Miller will be the leader next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Rose Shadle and daughter, Sandra, East King street, spent the week-end in Frederick, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Warfield, who is ill, and her father, Jesse Wiles.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Littlestown Lions club will not be held this week as was previously announced. It will be held one week later, Thursday, November 10, when they will observe the 10th anniversary of their Charter night. This will also be Ladies' Night. It will be held in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed church, and a special program has been arranged. Program committee for the occasion includes the Rev. Kenneth D. James, chairman; Clayton L. Evans, Harry T. Harner, S. J. Wisotzky and H. Dewey Streviz.

VFW Dance Held

Girl Scouts

Mountain Fair grounds, at Camp Ernie, Abbotstown, and Camp Little, Littlestown.

Miss Marian Tupper, Waynesboro, became Girl Scout executive for Adams county on June 15, 1948. She has been a Girl Scout worker since 1930.

Make Good Citizens

Assisting the girls of the county to become good citizens is one of the outstanding aims of the Girl Scout movement.

Girls enter the Brownie troops at the age of seven, and the senior scout program extends to girls through the age of 18.

"The fundamental aim of Girl Scouting," according to Miss Tupper, "is to help each girl find and develop her abilities and appreciation so that she may become a happy, resourceful person with a healthy attitude toward life and a responsible, useful member of her home, her church, and society."

On March 12, 1949, Girl Scouts observed the 37th anniversary of the founding of this movement. The organization was launched in 1912 by Juliette Gordon Low. Mrs. Low could not foresee the course of history, wars, depressions, precarious prosperity and dubious peace in which her organization would evolve and expand, but she knew that the philosophy of any group dealing with human beings is open to endless development and Girl Scout leaders believe that this is perhaps the secret of the Girl Scout success story.

123 At Day Camps

One hundred and twenty-three girls attended the Girl Scout day camps during the summer of 1949. On June 27, 1949 Mrs. Coleman was re-elected president of the county council. In addition to Mrs. Coleman, the following officers were elected for the next two years: First vice president, Mrs. Raymond Sheely; second vice president, Mrs. Samuel Kirkpatrick; secretary, Mrs. Richard Lighter and treasurer, Mrs. George E. Burgher.

The following board members were chosen: Mrs. Harvey Raffensperger, Arendtsville; Mrs. Leon Gage, Littlestown; Mrs. Raymond Unks, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Mervin Bream, Mrs. Fred Faber, Jr., Mrs. George Miller, and Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, all of Gettysburg; Mrs. Romaine Pittenturf, York Springs; Mrs. Brenda Walker, Littlestown, and Mrs. Dewey McCauslin, Bendersville.

The roster of Girl Scouts, leaders and assistant leaders in Adams county follows:

The old town jail at Biglerville is now used as a hut by the Biglerville Girl Scouts. Boy Scouts used the building for some time and then gave it up because it was too small. It is owned by the community and is located on fire company property. No charge is made for its use, which also includes electricity. The troop furnishes the heat and recently painted the exterior as a summer project. The Girl Scouts are now renovating the interior. Mary Ellen Crawford is shown at the left, Barbara Geiselman is on the right.

York Springs Girl Scouts are proud of their new headquarters shown above. It was sponsored and built by the York Springs Lions club assisted by Boy Scouts. Both Boy and Girl Scouts use the building. The basement includes a furnace room, craft room and shop. A Pennsylvania Week committee sponsored a dinner to secure funds to equip the cabin. ## U.S. INDUSTRIAL PROFITS TURN UP FOR 3RD QUARTER

(Copyright, 1949, By The Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 1 (AP)—Profits of American industry turned upwards in the third quarter of this year for the first time in 12 months.

They stand only slightly below the all-time high mark of a year ago, when third-quarter earnings were the peak in the record year of 1948.

An unusual feature of the third quarter was the substantial increase in earnings of automobile companies which off-set a sharp decline in oil company profits.

The compilation by the Associated Press of earnings reports of 314 leading corporations in all major fields showed Monday a total net profit of $1,003,644,061 in the July-September quarter.

Not Surprising

This is 4.3 per cent higher than the total of $962,102,819 reported by the same corporations in the second quarter of this year.

It is only 4.1 per cent lower than the $1,046,983,291 earned by these companies in the third quarter of 1948.

Corporate earnings slid lower in the final quarter of 1948 from their third quarter peak, and the decline continued in the first and second quarters of this year.

The upturn was not surprising to those who watched the recession of early 1949 give way gradually to an economic recovery around mid-year. The present profit trend confirms that rebound.

Auto Earnings Up

Largely responsible for the overall good showing are the earnings of two automobile companies. The increase in their earnings more than balanced the decline in profits shown by the oil companies.

Chrysler and General Motors increased their earnings by more than $98,000,000 in the third quarter of this year over a year ago, while the earnings of 22 oil companies fell nearly $97,000,000 below the level of the third quarter of 1948.

A comparison of the third quarter of this year with the previous quarter shows the two motormakers added more than $41,000,000 to their earnings, while the oil companies fell back by some $13,000,000.

Out of the 24 principal groups of companies, only seven showed increases in earnings in the third quarter over a year ago, but 14 of

The weekly rehearsal of the chorus will follow at 9 p. m.

Mrs. Harold Shoemaker will be leader at the monthly meeting of the Women's Guild of Christ Reformed church, which will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the church. The monthly meeting of the consistory will be held at the same hour.

They increased their earnings in the third quarter over the second quarter.

REAL REASONS FOR FIRING OF DENFELD HIDDEN

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 1 (AP)—Why—specifically—did President Truman fire Admiral Louis E. Denfeld? As Chief of Naval Operations, the admiral was the Navy's highest officer.

Neither Mr. Truman nor Navy Secretary Francis B. Matthews said what Denfeld had done—specifically—to cause his firing. Matthews, as civilian head of the Navy, was Denfeld's superior.

The story of the firing won't be complete until the question is plainly answered. In trying to understand the case the key point to keep in mind is this date: October 4, 1949.

In 1947 President Truman appointed Denfeld Chief of Naval Operations. The term was for two years. After that Denfeld could be reappointed or replaced.

In a letter to Mr. Truman Thursday Matthews said he thought Denfeld should be ousted. But—Matthews pointed out that last August 2 he had thought Denfeld should be reappointed. (Mr. Truman, acting on Matthews' recommendation, reappointed Denfeld.)

No Trouble In August

Why on August 2 did Matthews think enough of Denfeld to want him reappointed? Matthews explained in his letter: "I had every reason to believe we were in complete agreement on all important questions affecting the administration of the department of the Navy. Unfortunately, it soon became clear that my expectation would not be realized."

By October 4 Matthews told the President, "Events had taken such a course that, in a conference had with Admiral Denfeld early that day

I frankly stated to him that I feared his usefulness as Chief of Naval Operations had terminated."

But what turn had "events taken" on October 4 to change Matthews' mind about Denfeld? The specific answer to that has not been given by Matthews or the President.

Denfeld's name did figure in one strange episode that occurred on the night of October 3. Here is the background on that.

Many Navy officers, maybe most, have disliked the unification act or at least the way it's being handled.

Letters Released

On the night of October 3 one of these critics—Captain John G. Cromellin—released to reporters letters written to Matthews by three admirals. One of them, Vice Admiral Gerald M. Bogan, said Navy morale has hit a low point because of policies in Johnson's defense set-up.

"Forwarding endorsements," praising Bogan were attached to the letter by Denfeld and Admiral Arthur W. Radford. In his note Denfeld said, "I sincerely believe any step that is not good for the Navy is not good for the nation."

Bogan's letter, since it moved through official channels, required the endorsement of Denfeld and Radford before reaching Matthews. But Denfeld explained on October 4, the day after Cromellin let the letters out, that his "endorsement" did not mean he concurred in Bogan's views.

But a storm broke over Washington when the Cromellin letters appeared in the morning papers of October 4. The House Armed Services committee announced it would hold hearings to get to the bottom of the Navy complaints.

Denfeld Outspoken

On October 3 Matthews, appearing before the Congressional committee, said cuts in money for the Navy, ordered in the Pentagon, would impair the nation's security and hurt the Navy's fighting ability.

Appearing before the committee on October 13, Denfeld went further than Matthews and said the unification act had been "improperly" handled.

After Denfeld testified before the committee there were rumors here his outspoken testimony would cost him his job.

But Matthews' letter seems to make it clear that something which happened on or before October 4 was the cause.

The U.S. Bureau of Mines estimates zinc-lead deposits in the tri-state district of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma at 66,100,000 tons. Carbon black has been produced by the U.S. Bureau of Mines by exploding acetylene gas in helium gas.
